

IEHA Values, Mission & Code of Ethics

Core Values

Love, Presence, Inspiration, Connection, Sharing

Mission Statement

At IEHA, our commitment is to deliver Excellence in Energetic Awareness. As an inclusive community, we strive to serve as a guiding light for energy medicine practitioners, students, and seekers alike. We aim to ensure clarity, transparency, and industry standards that support the community and those on their journeys of healing, growth, and self-discovery.

By providing education, support, mentoring, and referral services, we nurture a vibrant community where members thrive and actively contribute to expanding consciousness. Together, we endeavour to foster unity, establish clear standards, dissolve barriers, engender trust, and empower all to embrace the transformative power of holistic living.

Code of Ethics

As a member of the IEHA I agree to honour the code of ethics as listed below:

A Dedication to Excellence:

- Maintain a commitment to excellence in energetic awareness with love at the core.
- Continuously improve my practice and understanding of energy healing.

Respect, Inclusivity, and Connection:

- Honour the diversity of healing modalities, cultures, and perspectives.
- Foster an inclusive environment where all are respected and valued.

Integrity, Transparency, and Accountability:

- Conduct myself with integrity, transparency, and honesty.
- Be accountable for my actions and decisions.
- Ensure the monetary and/or energy exchange is clear before working with the client.

Compassionate Care and Empowerment:

- Approach my work with compassion, empathy, and non-judgment.
- Empower clients to make informed decisions about their healing journey.

Confidentiality and Professional Boundaries:

- Maintain strict confidentiality regarding client information.
- Establish and maintain clear professional boundaries.
- Understand responsibilities regarding mandatory reporting.

Continuous Learning and Collaboration:

- Commit to lifelong learning and continuous personal enrichment.
- Collaborate with other healthcare professionals and refer clients when necessary.

Personal Responsibility and Self-Care:

- Take personal responsibility for my own well-being.
- Prioritize self-care practices to sustain my ability to serve others effectively.
- Seek mentoring and support when required.

Promotion of Holistic Living and Well-being:

- Advocate for holistic living practices that nurture mind, body, and spirit.
- Promote practices that support well-being and holistic healing.

Contribution to Community and Support:

- Actively contribute to the growth and vitality of the IEHA community.
- Support fellow practitioners, students, and seekers on their healing journeys.

By adhering to these ethical principles, we honour our core values and mission, embodying the spirit of the International Energetic Healing Association and fostering a community where all can thrive and embrace the transformative power of holistic living.
